Bristol Brass Consort

Formed in 1985, the Bristol Brass Consort is a symphonic brass ensemble which regularly performs established brass repertoire as well as lesser known works and new commissions. The group regularly performs for music societies, festivals, concert series and weddings.

Bristol Brass Consort is structured as a brass quintet as its core ensemble, consisting of two trumpets, French horn, trombone and tuba. We also expand to bigger formations including brass dectet and 18-piece large ensemble depending on the repertoire.

For tonight's concert the Consort present their music from around the world "Circum Mundi" "join them for a thrilling trip , sit back and let the group be your guide on this musical worldly mystery tour.

The music tonight will be introduced by the Consort
