The Roth Guitar Duo

The Roth Guitar Duo formed through a shared love of chamber music in 2014, whilst studying at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester and have been described as “...two of the UK’s brightest young stars of the guitar” Craig Ogden. The duo have maintained a busy performing schedule at venues and festivals throughout the U.K. including: St-Martin-in-the-Fields, Buxton Pavilion Arts Centre, Cardiff Guitar Festival, Nanpantan Festival, Ribfest, Weston Concerts and Grimsby Concert Society.

The Roth Guitar Duo have been invited, on many occasions, to perform at Manchester’s Bridgewater Hall for concert series such as A Little Bite Music, Dig the City Festival, Craig Ogden’s Big Guitar Weekend and Bridgewater Introducing, which gives up and coming artists the opportunity to perform at the prestigious venue. Sam and Emma always strive to create varied programmes of interest to any music lover, ranging from Renaissance to newly commissioned and unpublished works.

The duos highly regarded first album “Canonica”, contains music from today’s programme as well as other works from the duo’s extensive repertoire. Sam and Emma’s popularity has attracted new compositions from prominent composers including Yvonne Bloor and Mark Houghton. The duo were recently awarded Second Prize in the ENKOR International Music Competition.
